Cool! Making it now.

It's about a fantasy world called Arcanis. There are eight kingdoms- Flame, Water, Earth, Sky, Ice, Plant, Shadow and Light. There's one man called Shadow who is a orphan. No one has ever loved him. When he was at school he was bullied. Now he wants revenge. His plan is to kidnap the heirs to the throne then kill the kings and queens. Then he'll rule all of Arcanis. Eight people {one from each kingdom} group together and come up with a plan to stop him. Choose eight baby's {one from each kingdom} and train them up. When the reach the age of sixteen they will be set free to stop Shadow. They must find eight jewels- a garnet, a sapphire, onyx, opal, quartz, amethyst, emerald and a diamond. If these are brought together the will stop Shadow. That's basically it. And thanks!
